2010 Roy J. Deeb Service Award Nomination Form

About ALPHA

In 1979, Roy J. Deeb discovered a community need and sought a way to fill it. Out of the heartbreaking story of a desperate, pregnant teenager, a place of hope and comfort was born: ALPHA House of Pinellas County, Inc.

As the only residential maternity program in Pinellas County serving minors, ALPHA provides supportive services to homeless pregnant women and teens, new mothers with infants, and families experiencing crisis pregnancies. ALPHA strives to meet more than a pregnant woman's basic need for food, shelter and medical care. ALPHA also offers its residents education opportunities, therapeutic counseling, case management, and important life skills. Our goal is to move women from homelessness to self-sufficiency while promoting healthy relationships, positive parenting and a good self-image.

Award Criteria

For the past three years, the ALPHA Board of Directors has sought to recognize and honor a community leader whose life's work exemplifies the same tireless dedication to the underserved and disadvantaged population of Pinellas community as did ALPHA's Founder, Roy J. Deeb.

A nominee must be an adult who is active in providing humble service to those in need, and who reflects the values of:

- Service
- Reverence and love for all of life
- Joyfulness of spirit
- Humility

Nomination Procedure

To nominate an individual, please complete the form on the reverse side of this form and mail to:
