About ALPHA

In 1979, Roy Deeb discovered a community need and sought a way to fill it. Out of the heartbreaking story of a desperate, pregnant teenager, a place of hope and comfort was born: ALPHA House of Pinellas County, Inc.

As the only residential maternity program in Pinellas County serving minors, ALPHA provides supportive services to homeless pregnant women and teens and new mothers with infants experiencing crisis pregnancies. ALPHA strives to meet more than a pregnant woman's basic need for food, shelter and medical care. ALPHA also offers its residents education opportunities, therapeutic counseling, case management, and important life skills. Our goal is to move women from homelessness to self-sufficiency while promoting healthy relationships, positive parenting and a good self-image.

Award Criteria

ALPHA Board of Directors is looking to recognize and honor a person who has gone through a transformation that inspires others to achieve greatness. This individual will have transformed from a hardship in life and overcome obstacles that stood in their way. Displaying developed growth over time as a responsible community minded individual. Along the way finding achievement through education, community service, career or other personal accomplishment.

A nominee must be someone who reflects the values of:

- Transformation
- Growth
- Achievement
