

2019 ROY DEEB SERVICE AWARD

Nomination Form

About ALPHA

In 1979, Roy Deeb discovered a community need and sought a way to fill it. Out of the heartbreaking story of a desperate, pregnant teenager, a place of hope and comfort was born: ALPHA House of Pinellas County, Inc.

As the only residential maternity program in Pinellas County, the primary mission of ALPHA is to provide housing and supportive services to homeless pregnant teenagers and women, so that they can become mothers with the job skills education, parenting skills, positive self-esteem and spiritual foundation necessary for them to obtain permanent housing, successfully raise their children and contribute to the community.

The secondary missions of ALPHA are to provide supportive services to new mothers with infants and to families experiencing crisis pregnancies, and to raise community awareness of the needs of pregnant women.

Award Criteria

For the past nine years, the ALPHA Board of Directors has sought to recognize and honor a community leader whose life's work exemplifies the same tireless dedication to the underserved and disadvantaged population of Pinellas communities as did ALPHA's Founder, Roy Deeb.

A nominee must be an adult who is active in providing humble service to those in need, and who reflects the values of:

- Service
- Joyfulness of spirit
- Reverence and love for all of life
- Humility

Nominee must currently live in Pinellas County
